SUPERVISORS.—A meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Ohio County will be held to-day, at the Court House.

We noticed workmen engaged in cleaning the gutters, yesterday, on several streets.

TOWN DOWN.—Some one, who should be discovered if possible, and punished, tore down, Sunday night, one of the trees planted in front of the Post Office.

We don't know what should be done with a party that would do so mean an act as to destroy shade trees along the streets, and we only wish the individual could be brought before Judge Gooch for a few minutes. We'll guarantee the guilty one wouldn't commit a similar offense in a long period.

INCORPORATED.—A certificate of incorporation was issued by the Secretary of State, yesterday, to the Harrison County Gold and Silver Mining Company. The capital stock at present is $300, with power to increase it to $500, in shares of $10 each. The principal office is located at Charleston. The charter is to expire on the 1st of January, 1867. Robert S. Northcott, Angus W. Heger, Joseph W. Odell, William W. Johnson, John Fouse and John Conwell are the incorporators, and measures will be taken to commence operations without delay.

THE UNDERSIGNED call the attention of the public to the concert to be given this evening by Mrs. Sienkiewski, the eminent artist. She deserves the patronage of the citizens both on account of her skillful performance and her present needy circumstances.—

Those who have heard her can bear testimony to her superior merits as an artist; those who know her, to her generous worth as a lady.

ARTHUR McKee, O. S. Long, A. C.

Turner, M. F. Huihlin, H. J. Wiesel,

Dewey, E. W. H. W. McAfee,

G. O. Davenport, John List, Jr.

SCHOOL DESK.—Our attention was called, yesterday, to a school desk and not combined, and not combined in Parkersburg. The article is very neat in appearance, simple in construction and we think admirably adapted to the purpose intended. We are pleased to know that such school-room furniture can be procured in our own State. Heretofore our people have been compelled to send abroad for it. Now that it can be had so conveniently and at reasonable figures, we hope the school houses all over the State will be supplied with their supply of desks and seats of home manufacture.

PETTY THEFTING.—An old citizen, a resident near the Centre Wheeling Market House, informed us yesterday that it was almost impossible to keep anything in that locality, unless strictly watched. He said, further, that this petty thieving deterred many farmers from bringing their produce to that market; and that if such a police system as prevails at the Second Ward Market, could be established there, a very marked increase in the quantity of all kinds of marketing, would be the result. We think it would be well enough to try the experiment for a short time, and if the old gentlemen's anticipations are realized, let that market be regarded as the one on this side of the creek.

BOARD OF REGENTS.—A meeting of the Board of Regents of the State Normal School, was held yesterday in the office of the State Treasurer, Maj. Bristor, Present, Prof. W. R. White, ex officio

President of the Board; Rev. J. T. Mc-Clure, Secretary; Major Bristor and General Withers.

The principal business transacted at the meeting was the passage of a resolution tendering the use of the building at West Liberty to S. R. Thompson, Professor of Natural Sciences, in the State Normal School of Pennsylvania, located at Ellensburg, Erie county. A committee, consisting of Prof. White, Rev. McClure and Major Bristor, was appointed to examine Prof. Thompson as to his qualifications to take charge of such an institution. Gen. Withers was also appointed to take charge of the building, and receive the title to ten acres of land recently purchased by the Board. After the transaction of some other business, of no public importance, however, the adjourned.

Prof. White informs us that he is corresponding with educators in other States for the purpose of securing competent persons to take charge of our State institution. Extensive repairs are being made to the building, and it is thought they will be completed and the Normal School be formally opened for the reception of pupils by the 1st of January next. The Professor reports that there is a great demand for good teachers in the interior, which he is totally unable to supply.

In reference to the branch Normal School at West Liberty, we are informed that Prof. Thompson proposes to secure the services of two or more assistants, and to commence operations at farthest in two months. He intends to make it first-class in every particular. Of his own qualifications, he brings the highest testimonials, among which are found strong recommendations by

Hon. J. P. Wickersham, State Secretary, and from Rev. A. Martin, D.

D., late of our city.

It is hoped when these schools are opened and thoroughly equipped with competent instructors and all the necessary appliances, that the demand for teachers, now so pressing and annually increasing as schools are being established, will be fully met.

POLICE COURT.—From some cause but having become lively in this institution, Monday morning we had nearly ten cases to report,—this morning not so many; still the number is larger than pleasant. Why this sudden increase in offenses against the peace and dignity of the city, we cannot imagine, unless there is some connection between it and the rise in the river.

If that be the case, we will thank some one who has studied the subject to explain it satisfactorily to us. But a true to speculation.

The following cases were disposed of:

John Rogers, (not the individual who was followed to the stake by wife, nine small children and one dog), was arraigned for disorderly conduct, and came off minus five dollars and costs.

George Largent, from Belleaire, came up to see the city and get a drink—got the drink—got another—got sleepy—went to bed in the Second Ward market house—got in the lock-up, and got fined one dollar and costs. Martin Neider was in great good humor with himself and all the world on Hollow Eve. Determined to have some fun at somebody else's expense, as he supposed, he made a raid on what is always seized on that occasion, viz:

cabbages, and having succeeded thus far so brilliantly, he concluded to see what effect tossing a head of it through a neighboring Dutchman's window would have. He did so, as it is usual shown in Court, and as usual in such cases, he had to pay dearly for it, yesterday morning, the fine and costs amounting to about nine dollars, which he promptly paid.

THE RIVER.—At dark last night, the mark showed four feet, eight inches in the channel, and rising slowly. The landing presented a livelier appearance yesterday than it has for the last three months. Boats were arriving and departing, and everybody in the neighborhood of the wharf felt that a brighter day was dawning on those who are interested in steamboat matters.

Capt. Darrah came down from Pittsburgh, by rail, to take charge of the Bellevue. We noticed Capt. Johnson, of the Glasgow, prospecting for a trip to St. Louis. That old veteran among boatmen, Capt. O'Neal, of the Forest City, made his appearance on the market at the landing with his craft, after an absence of three or four months. We see that Haze Doyle,

"the fat boy" is still in the office of the Forest City.—The St. Mary's came down from her summer quarters, and is much improved by the extension of her cabin.

She leaves for Cincinnati and Louisville to-morrow evening. Capt. Sweeney will be in command.—The James Reese arrived from Sunfish at her old hour and departed on her return trip to that point, as formerly.—The Secler came up from below on Sunday night and left last evening for Cincinnati.—The Importer, Capt. Noss; Glasgow, Capt.

Johnson, and the Belle Vernon, Capt.

Darrah, were at the landing last night, and are receiving freight for St. Louis.

The Levi Levi leaves for Parkersburg this morning at 11 o'clock.

COMMITTED.—It will be remembered that John W. White, Jr., the party charged with entering the Liquor Store of G. W. Franzheim on Sunday night week, was brought before Judge Johnson on Monday morning after the burglary, and underwent a partial examination. He was committed to jail until yesterday, in order to give him an opportunity to send for witnesses which he said would put a different phase on his case.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock he was brought again before the Justice, Mr. Jones appearing as his counsel, and J. P. Rogers, Esq., Prosecuting attorney, for the State. The witnesses for the prosecution were examined, and when White was asked if he had any present, replied that he had not. The Justice gave a brief statement of the case and closed by saying that he would commit him to wait his trial at the December term. The prisoner was then taken to jail.

FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock the cook room of the Grant House was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was at once given, and before the engine arrived on the ground, the damages had been extinguished by the attaches of the hotel and the crowd that had gathered. No damage of any consequence was done to the building.

We did not learn how the fire originated.

As cold weather approaches more than ordinary care in the management of fires is requisite, and particular attention should be paid to all heating arrangements.

CONCERT.—It will be seen by reference to an advertisement in our columns, that a Flute Concert will be given this evening, at Washington Hall, by Madam Seminski. We have been informed by those who have heard the lady, that she is a skillful performer on the flute, bringing from it the very sweetest music. We trust Madam Seminski will be greeted by a large audience.

All shades trimming velvets, best quality, at $50 per yard, at J. H.

Smith & Co's.

LADIES' FASHIONS.—Those of our lady readers who follow the fashions should avail themselves of the advantages afforded by the establishment of Mrs. Kyle & Mrs. Watkins, 101 Main street. It will be seen by their advertisement in another column that ladies at a distance may enjoy those advantages as well as those in this city.

Just received, a large assortment of fancy Cloakings, at J. H. Smith & Co's.

EDUCATIONAL.—Messrs. Hitchcock &

Dow's Night School, on Main street, received, we are informed, twenty-three students last evening. The proprietors state that the "New School" has not a more hearty welcome than they anticipated.

FINE MINK, water mink and squirrel furs, for sale by J. H. Smith & Co's.
